Dear Joel,

Thank you for purchasing American Express Travel Insurance Single Trip, underwritten by Chubb Insurance Australia Limited (Chubb). Your payment of $ 413.50 has been processed and your American Express Travel Insurance Single Trip Policy is now effective.

Your policy number is: AXAUSBB02817

Your Certificate of Insurance

Your certificate of insurance is enclosed. Please keep this document in a safe place and remember to quote your policy number as shown on your certificate when contacting Chubb. To view all the benefits as well as the terms, conditions, exclusions and sub-limits of your policy, read the American Express Travel Insurance Single Trip Product Disclosure Statement \(PDS\).

Travelling against Government advice?

We will not cover losses, pay or reimburse any costs, under any section of this Policy arising from circumstances where:

- (a) prior to the Issue Date specified on Your Certificate of Insurance in the case of a claim for Cancellation; or
- (b) prior to You starting a Trip for all other claims under the Policy, an Australian State, Territory, or the Australian Federal Government or an Australian government agency (such as DFAT) issued a travel advisory warning, advising You to 'Do Not Travel' or that borders are closed, for the destination You planned to travel to. Please refer to who.int, smartraveller.gov.au, dfat.gov.au or other government sites for further information. This exclusion applies even if You have been granted a travel exemption by an Australian State or Territory, the Australian Federal Government or an Australian government agency (such as DFAT) to travel.

Cooling Off Period

You have 14 days from the date we confirm via email and/or SMS that you are covered to review your policy and check that the cover meets your needs. This is called the cooling off period. During this period you can cancel your policy and receive a full refund of the premium paid as long as you have not commenced your journey or lodged a claim during that time.
